

Stop Phragmites

Without your support, we will lose our precious lands in Ipperwash

Phragmites australis (European Common Reed) is rapidly invading the riverbanks, wetlands, roadside ditches, and beaches in Lambton Shores.

Phragmites Information Meeting

Thursday, August 25 at 6:30 PM

Our Ponderosa Cottage and RV Resort, 9338 West Ipperwash Rd.

Guest Speaker:

Dr. Janice Gilbert
Wetland Ecologist

Meeting topics:

- Locations of Phragmites in Ipperwash
- Impact of Phragmites on our community
- Options for Phragmites control and your role
- Projects underway in the MLS
- Question and answer panel

Gain insights about this invasive species from first hand experience of experts and land owners

For more information: Nancy Vidler at 519-243-2562

Ipperwash Phrag Phighters
ipperwashphragphighters@gmail.com